

SKPS invites families to engage with district leaders on back-to-school planning for fall

Salem-Keizer Public Schools plans to provide full-time, in-person instruction for all students. SKPS wants to hear from families. Please visit our website to join a virtual meeting and Q&A on Aug. 4 or 6 from 6-7 p.m.

What: Virtual sessions with district leaders to gather feedback on what supports families need for the 2021-22 school year.

When: Aug. 4 and 6, 6-7 p.m. Both sessions will offer the same information. Interpretation provided in ASL, Chuukese, Marshallese, Russian, Spanish and Swahili.

Where: Both engagement sessions will be held on Zoom.
