

RICHARD TODD

Horn teacher at the University of Miami, and former Principal Horn of the Los Angeles Chamber Orchestra, Todd's studio career has spanned over 35 years and included over 2,000 film and television scores. He has been given screen credit on blockbusters such as Star Trek Into Darkness and Tomorrowland. As a jazz artist, Todd's education started with Ellis Marsalis.

- Friday, February 3, 3-4:30 pm, North Salem HS Band room – Masterclass for Beginning/ Middle School Horn students. Bring your horn with you.
- Friday, February 3, 5 – 7:00 pm, North Salem HS Band room – Masterclass for High School Horn Students (they will not need instruments).
- Tuesday, February 7, 7:00 pm, McKay High School Auditorium – Richard Todd Recital performing classical horn solos and jazz improvisation. He will be joined by the McKay and North Salem High School Jazz Bands.

Admission for all events is free.

The public is invited to attend all events.

“To study music is to study one’s self...Making music is one of the greatest gifts to be given, and also to be shared.”— RICHARD TODD