Experiencing
Homelessness

Who is eligible?

Children and youth who are in transition are defined as those who lack a fixed, regular, or adequate nighttime residence including:

- “Doubled up” sharing the housing of others due to the loss of housing, economic hardship, or similar reason
- Living in emergency or transitional shelters
- Living in motels, trailer parks or camping due to a lack of alternative accommodations
- Living in cars, parks, or other public spaces
- Living in abandoned buildings or substandard housing with no heat, electricity, water, or floors
- Migrant students living in any of the above
- Unaccompanied youth not in physical custody of a parent/guardian and living in any of the above, including runaways or youth denied housing by their families

Educational Rights

Students experiencing homelessness have the right to:

- Enroll and attend classes immediately even if unable to provide proof of residency, immunization records, or other documents
- Attend the neighborhood school or the school of origin (the school student attended when permanently housed or last enrolled)
- Attend their school of origin until the end of the school year, even if they become housed or move out of district, if feasible
- Receive a written explanation and appeal if educational placement is denied
- Attend school while a dispute resolution or disagreement is resolved
- Receive transportation to and from the student’s school of origin
- Access school services needed such as Title 1, Special Education, Migrant Education, ELL Services, and Student Access & Advancement (TAG) Services
- Participate in extracurricular activities
- Free and reduced school meals
- Attend district pre-school programs
