 - c. Pledge of Allegiance

2. PUBLIC COMMENT ON 2021-22 PROPOSED BUDGET Chairperson

The budget committee welcomes public comment on the 2021-22 proposed budget. For the May 24 meeting, both written and call-in public comment will be received. 30 minutes total time will be designated for public comment. Each caller will be allowed three minutes to speak; for comment in a language other than English, an additional three minutes will be allowed for translation. Written public comment will be forwarded to the budget committee Monday afternoon so committee members have an opportunity to review it prior to any decision-making. Callers will be provided a phone number to call in during the meeting. During the meeting, the budget committee will hear a summary of written public comment. The summary and the submitted written comment will be posted to the SKPS website the next business day.

Please CLICK HERE to sign up to call in or to submit your written comment. Sign-up for public comment opens when the agenda is posted and closes at noon Monday, May 24. Guidelines for public comment are listed on the sign-up form, and general guidelines are available on our website as well.
